Denim.LA, Inc. ("DSTLD") is “testing the waters” to gauge market demand from potential investors for an Offering under Tier II of Regulation A. No money or other consideration is being solicited, and if sent in response, it will not be accepted. No sales of securities will be made or commitment to purchase accepted until qualification of the offering statement by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) and approval of any other required government or regulatory agency. An indication of interest made by a prospective investor is non-binding and involves no obligation or commitment of any kind. No offer to buy securities can be accepted and no part of the purchase price can be received without an Offering Statement that has been qualified by the Commission. A Preliminary Offering Circular that forms a part of the Offering Statement has been filed with the Commission, a copy of which may be obtained from https://www.seedinvest.com/dstld/series.a.

Uniqlo’s low-cost basics have allowed its parent company, Fast Retailing, to announce astounding numbers. In 2009, during one of the worst periods in the history of retailing, Uniqlo reported over $7 billion in sales of more than 400 million items. Existing-store sales were up by more than 30 percent.

WE ARE DISTILLING THE QUALITY, DESIGN, AND PRICING OF FASHION ESSENTIALS

QUALITY
We craft the DSTLD line with upper echelon fabrics and finishes, premier caliber construction, and uncommonly well-considered fit. We work with some of the most sought-after factories and laundries in the industry – the same facilities producing for leading luxury apparel brands.

DESIGN
DSTLD uses simple and iconic designs that focuses on iteration around staple items. Branding is kept to a minimum so the quality and wearers individuality can steal the show.

Limiting the DSTLD palette to Black, White, and Denim insures that all DSTLD products can be worn interchangeably while remaining stylish and timeless.

PRICE
We sidestep the middleman and sell our products ourselves, allowing us to offer top-tier quality without the standard 3-8x retail markup.
